

PROTECTIVE COVENANTS AND EASEMENT

Madeline Jacobson, owner of the following described tract of land, Eugene W. Jacobson, her husband, publish and declare said property subject to the following covenants:

whom it may concern

These covenants are to run with the land and shall be binding on all present and future owners of all or any part of the following described real estate until January 1, 1990.

Lots 1 through 157 both inclusive, in Bel-Air Village, a subdivision in Douglas County, Nebraska.

If the present or future owners of any of said lots or their grantees, heirs or assigns, shall violate or attempt to violate any of these covenants, it shall be lawful for any other person or persons owning any part of said real estate to prosecute any proceedings at law or in equity against the person or persons violating or attempting to violate any such covenant and either to prevent him or them from doing so or to recover damages or other dues for such violation.

Invalidation of any of these covenants by judgement or court order shall in no way effect any of the other provisions, which shall remain in full force and effect.

A. Said lots shall be occupied and used for residential, single family dwellings exclusively, or for church or school purposes.

B. The ground floor area of any residence located in 2nd residential zoning shall be not less than 1200 square feet for a one story structure, and not less than 800 square feet for a one and one half story or two story structure.
