Edwin Sherwood

I, Edwin Sherwood, of the Town and County of Fairfield, State of Connecticut, being of sound disposing mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of life, hereby make and publish this my last will and testament, intending thereby to dispose of all the estate real and personal, of which I may be possessed at the time of my death.

First. I direct that all my just and lawful debts be paid out of my estate, including funeral expenses and expenses of administration.

Second. I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Mary A. Sherwood the use, income and improvements during the term of her natural life of the following property, to wit:

My homestead in Southport in said town of Fairfield, where we now
