Plaintiff

12. That the Plaintiff has not participated as a party, witness, or in any other capacity in any other litigation concerning the custody of the minor children in this or any other state.

13. That the Plaintiff has no information of any custody proceeding concerning the minor children pending in a court of this or any other state.

14. That the Plaintiff knows of no person not a party to these proceedings who has physical custody of the minor children, or who claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to the minor children.

15. That the Plaintiff is not a party to any other pending action for divorce, separation, or dissolution of marriage.

16. That the Defendant is an able-bodied person capable of contributing to the temporary and permanent support of the minor children of the parties.

17. That the parties hereto are the owners of various items of real and personal property, and have incurred certain debts, and all of said property and debts should be justly and equitably apportioned between the parties.

18. That the Defendant should each pay his own and the Plaintiff should pay her own attorney's fees and costs.

19. That the marriage of the Plaintiff and the Defendant is irretrievably broken, and every reasonable effort to effect a reconciliation has been made.

WHEREFORE, your Plaintiff prays:

A. That the marriage of the Plaintiff and the Defendant be dissolved by a decree of this Court;

B. That the Plaintiff have the temporary and permanent care, custody, control and education of the minor children of the parties.

C. That the Court provide for the temporary and permanent support and maintenance of the minor children of the parties by an appropriate order for child support from the Defendant;

D. That the Court approve or make such division of the property and debts to the parties as may be fair and equitable;

E. That each party pay their own attorney's fees and costs; and

F. That the Court provide such other and further relief as may be just and equitable in the premises.

G. That the Plaintiff requests restoration of her maiden name, Mayra Beltran Lopez.
