within the subdivision subject to the restrictions contained herein.

PART B. COMMON LOT AREA

MEMBERSHIP

B-1. Each record owner, whether one or more persons or entities of any part, parcel or portion of a platted lot or building site shall automatically be a member of Hutton's Subdivision Association. When one or more persons holds an interest in a lot, all such persons shall be members. No owner shall have more memberships than the number of lots owned by said member. Membership shall be appurtenant to and may not be separated from ownership of the property.

VOTING RIGHTS

B-2. Each member shall be entitled to one vote for each lot owned within the subdivision. The vote for each lot shall be exercised as the owner(s) of said lot shall determine, but in no event shall more than one vote be cast for each lot.

MEMBERSHIP FEES

B-3. The owner(s) of each lot within the subdivision, excluding lot 13, hereby covenants and agrees to pay to the Association an annual membership fee on the first day of JULY each year in a amount to be determined by the Board of Directors for the Homeowner's Association. Until 1999, the annual fee shall not be more than $100.00 per lot. Thereafter, the annual assessment may be increased each year, in an amount no to exceed 10% above the annual assessment for the previous year without a vote of two-thirds of the Association membership. Said membership fee shall bear interest at the rate of 10%, and shall be considered delinquent if not paid within thirty days of its due date. Said delinquent fee shall thereafter become a continuing lien upon the property which shall run with the land. Said annual membership fee shall be prorated the first year to begin on the effective date of membership of said new member and continue to be payable thereafter on the date and in the amount specified above. The annual membership fee shall constitute a personal obligation which may be enforced and collected by the Association in a suit at law or the Association may elect to foreclose the lien upon the property in addition to and not to the exclusion of any other remedy or means of collection that may be available to the Association.

PURPOSE OF ASSESSMENTS/FEES

B-4. The membership fees levied by the Association shall be used exclusively for promoting the health, safety and welfare and recreation of the subdivision residents including maintenance and repair of the common properties, purchase of insurance, and payment of real property taxes pertaining to common areas.

PART C. COMMON SCHEME RESTRICTIONS

The following restrictions are imposed as a common scheme upon Lots within the Subdivision for the benefit of each property owner and may be enforced by any owner of a lot or common property of the Subdivision.

- C-1. With the exception of Lot thirteen, no building site or lot shall be used except for residential purposes. Lot thirteen shall be designated as the common area thereby accessible as hereinafter provided by all members of the Association.
- C-2. No offensive activity shall be carried on or permitted upon any lot or common area.
- C-3. No structure of a temporary character, trailer, tent, shack, barn, or other outbuilding shall be erected upon or used as a residence, either temporarily or permanently. any such covenant, and either to prevent him/her or them from so doing or to recover damages or other dues for such violation.

C-11. Invalidation of any one of these covenants or any part thereof by judgments or Court order shall in no way affect any of the other provisions which shall remain in full force and effect.

C-12. The ground floor enclosed area of single-family residential structures, exclusive of open porches and garage areas shall not be less than 1200 square feet for a one-story structure nor less than 900 square feet for a 1 ½ story or taller structure.

C-13. The covenants and restrictions of this declaration shall run with and bind the land and shall inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Association, the owners of any real property within the subdivision, their respective legal representatives, heirs, successors, assigns. These covenants may be amended and new covenants may be adopted at any time by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the Association. Written notice of any proposed amendment, and a meeting of the members to be called for such purpose must be sent at least sixty (60) days prior to such meeting. The notice shall contain a full text of the proposed amendment and the date, time and place of said meeting and shall be sent, postage prepaid, to each property owner at their local address. Any such changes shall be reduced to a written instrument and filed with the Register of Deeds of Cass County, Nebraska.

C-14. Ownership of Lot thirteen (13) shall be transferred to the Association upon the sale of six lots within the subdivision and upon said transfer, the Association shall assume collection and enforcement of all membership fees and maintenance, repair, insurance, and of all tax liability for the common areas.
