At the end of each fiscal year, a statement of the total year's Common's operating costs may be presented to the members of the Association and the members shall pay any excess charge to the Association within thirty (30) days of the statement.

- a. Additional Charges. The $10.00 annual fee shall be due and owing from the titleholder on January 1st of each and every year until such time as a residence is constructed upon the lot and occupied. No portion of this fee shall be credited to the annual dues or assessments.

No lot owner of the Properties shall institute, encourage or otherwise engage in any action, either legal or equitable, against the lawful operation of the meat packing plant as it now exists or may otherwise be lawfully expanded. Any action against the Benefited Property based upon any theory of changed conditions as a result of the development of the Properties is specifically waived.

The lot owners of the Properties or the Benefited Property, their respective representatives, agents, heirs, successors and assigns may institute or prosecute any proceedings at law or in equity against the person or persons violating or threatening to violate these Protective Covenants, including the right to proceed for an injunction of and for specific performance of any covenant herein contained and damages against the person or persons violating any such covenant.

28. AMENDMENTS. These Restrictive Covenants shall run with the land and shall be binding upon and enforceable by the Declarant and all persons claiming under the Declarant. However, the provisions of these Restrictive Covenants governing membership in the Association, maintenance of the Commons, and the maintenance of landscape screens pursuant to paragraph 19 shall not be terminated or modified without the consent of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska.

If the Declarant, Association, or lot owner in any action to enforce these Restrictive Covenants is successful, they shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and court costs. Failure by the Association, any member thereof, or the City of Lincoln to enforce any covenant or restrictions herein contained shall in no event be deemed a waiver of the right to do so. In the event the Association is dissolved, the lot owner shall remain jointly and severally liable for the cost of maintenance of the Commons.

30. SEVERABILITY. The invalidation of any one of these Restrictive Covenants shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions hereof.
