The Prospect Hill Cemetary Assn.
to
William B. Wood

Omaha Nebr. September 9th, 1910 Received of William B. Wood the sum of One hundred & twenty five ($125.00) Dollars to be by this Association paid over to Henry W. Yates Trustee, or to his successor as such Trustee with power to invest and reinvest the same, the net annual income to be paid to this

Association by such trustee; Provided however that said sum may be kept and invested by said Trustee with other moneys advanced by other lot owners for similar purposes and in that event at the end of each year a pro rata part of the net yearly income of the said aggregate fund shall be paid to this Association as the net annual income from said sum of One hundred & Twenty five ($125.00) Dollars.

In lieu of annual dues, one per cent of said sum of One hundred & Twenty five ($125.00) Dollars shall be retained by this Association out of the net annual income so paid to it by said Trustee and shall be expended for the general care of Prospect Hill Cemetary; and this Association agrees perpetually to apply the balance of said net annual income so paid to it by said Trustee for the care of Lot number East half Lot 174, First Addition in said Cemetary and of the improvements thereon.

Any portion of said income that shall not be needed for the above purposes this Association is authorized to expend in such manner as in the judgment of its Board of Trustees or its successor or successors shall most conduce to the improvement and embellishment of said lot and the approaches thereto..
