II

General Purposes of Conditions

The real property described in Paragraph I hereof is subject to the covenants, restrictions, conditions, reservations, liens and charges hereby declared to insure the best use and the most appropriate development and improvement of each building site thereof; to protect the owners of building sites against such improper use of surrounding building sites as will depreciate the value of their property; to preserve, so far as practicable, the natural beauty of said property; to guard against the erection thereon of poorly designed or proportioned structures, and structures built of improper or unsuitable materials; to obtain harmonious color schemes; to insure the highest and best development of said property; to encourage and secure the erection of attractive homes thereon, with appropriate locations thereof on building sites; to prevent haphazard and inharmonious improvement of building sites; to secure and maintain proper setbacks from streets, and adequate free spaces between structures; and in general to provide adequately for a high type and quality of improvement in said property, and thereby to enhance the values of investments made by purchasers of building sites therein.

A. All building sites in the tract shall be known and described as residential building sites, except the lake area. No structures shall be erected, altered, placed or permitted to remain on any building site other than one detached single-family dwelling not to exceed two and one-half stories in height, a private garage for not more than three cars, guest house, servants' quarters, and other outbuildings incidental to residential use of the premises.

B. No building shall be erected, placed, or altered on any premises in said development until the building plans, specifications, and plot plan showing the location of such building have been approved in writing as to conformity and harmony of external design with existing structures in the development, and as to location of the building with respect to topography and finished ground elevation, by an architectural committee consisting of Robert L. Fuxa and such other lot owners he shall appoint to serve with him. In the event of death or resignation of any member of said committee, the remaining member, or members, shall have full authority to approve or disapprove such design and location, or to designate a representative with like authority. In the event said committee, or its designated representative, fails to approve or disapprove such design and location within 30 days after said plans and specifications have been submitted to it or, in the event, if no suit to enjoin the erection of such building or the making of such alterations has been commenced prior to the completion thereof, such approval will not be required and this covenant will be deemed to have been fully complied with. Neither the members of such committee, nor its designated representative shall be entitled to any compensation for services performed pursuant to this covenant.

C. No building shall be located on any building site less than 50 feet from the front lot line for all sites covered by these covenants, nor less than 12.5 feet from any side street line. No building shall be located less than 10 feet from any side lot line or 5 feet from any building on the same site, except a detached garage or other outbuilding located in the rear yard may be placed 5 feet from the side line. No residence shall be so located as to reduce the rear yard of the plot on which it is located to less than 6 feet.

D. No residential structure shall be erected or placed on any building site, which has an area of less than 10,000 square feet or a width of less than 25 feet at the front building setback for interior lots, and less than 100 feet for corner lots.

E. No noxious or offensive trade or activity shall be carried on upon any building site nor shall anything be done thereon which may be or become an annoyance or nuisance to the neighborhood, and seller shall determine what constitutes noxious or offensive activity, and said determination shall be complete and final.

F. No trailer, basement, tent, shack, garage, barn, or other outbuilding other than guest houses and servants' quarters erected on a building site covered by these covenants shall at any time be used for human habitation temporarily or permanently, nor shall any structure of a temporary character be used for human habitation. K. All riparian rights or rights to use the lake are expressly reserved to seller. For future development, the use of the lake is a privilege to which the purchaser shall be entitled only by obtaining and maintaining membership in the Association in good standing. No rights to the use of the lake or any other facilities of the subdivision shall be transferred by conveyance of any lot except that nothing herein contained shall prohibit any lot owner's right of ingress and egress over the roads to his lot.

L. No boat docks, floats, or other structures shall be constructed or maintained in or on the lake without written permission of the Seller. Use of the lake shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the Homeowners Association. Seller reserves the use of the lake and other facilities for its corporate purposes without limitation.

M. The owner of each building site to which these covenants apply shall automatically become a member of the Homeowners Association and shall participate in the operation of the Association in accordance with the by-laws of the said Association.

N. These covenants are to run with the land and shall be binding on all parties and all persons claiming under them until August, 2000, at which time said covenants shall be automatically extended for successive periods of 10 years unless by vote of the then owners of the building sites covered by these covenants it is agreed to change said covenants it is agreed to change said covenants in whole or in part.

If the parties hereto, or any of them, or their heirs or assigns, shall violate or attempt to violate any of the covenants herein, it shall be lawful for any other person or persons owning any real property situated in said Fuxa Addition as provided in Paragraph 3, to prosecute any proceedings at law or in equity against the person or persons violating or attempting to violate any such covenant, and either to prevent him or them from so doing or to recover damages or other dues for such violation.

Invalidation of any one of these covenants or any part thereof by judgments or court order shall in no wise affect any of the other provisions which shall remain in full force and effect.
