XVI.

Each member of the Corporation, who is the record owner of a lot which has access to a street by way of a common driveway, shall have an easement over and upon such common driveway for ingress and egress from and to such street, which shall be appurtenant to and shall pass with the interest requisite for membership.

The Corporation hereby covenants and each member of the Corporation, by the acceptance of a deed by which the interest requisite for membership in the Corporation is acquired, shall be deemed to covenant to maintain the Commons, which covenants by the members shall be satisfied by the payment of annual and special assessments for the administration, maintenance or improvement of the Commons. No annual or special assessment for the administration, maintenance or improvement of the Commons shall be established, assessed, levied or collected by the Corporation until such time as legal title to the Commons has been conveyed to the Corporation. Annual and special assessments for the administration and maintenance of the commons may be made by the Board of Directors of the corporation. Special assessments for capital improvements may be made by the Board of Directors, provided however, that any such special assessment shall have been approved by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of each class of members affected and entitled to vote, present in person or by proxy, at a regular meeting of the members or at a special meeting of the members, provided notice of such special assessment be contained in the notice of such special meeting.

XX.

These covenants and restrictions shall run with the land and shall be binding upon and enforceable by the Company, all persons claiming under the Company, and their respective heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns. These covenants and restrictions may be terminated or modified, at any time, by an instrument executed by the owners of two-thirds of the lots within the Properties, agreeing to a termination or modification thereof.

XXI.

The company may add additional real property to the Properties or the Commons, at any time, without the consent or approval of the members of the Corporation. Such additions shall be made by the execution and recordation of Protective Covenants against and upon such additional real property, making such additional real property subject to the covenants and restrictions herein contained.

XXII.

The enforcement of these covenants and restrictions shall be by proceedings at law or in equity against any person or persons violating or attempting to violate any provision or provisions hereof. Such proceedings may be to restrain such violation, or to recover damage and, by the Corporation, may be to enforce any lien or obligation created hereby.
